SUPPLEMENT

TO

NUMB. 401.

MALTA, June 12.

UPON the Grand Maſter's receiving Advice, that there were ſail'd from the Port of Tunis ſeveral Gallios, which had committed Hoſtilities upon French Ships, and that a great Number of ſmall arm'd Ships were ready there to put to Sea, the Grand Maſter immediately order'd the Gallies and Ships of the Religion to go and block up that Port.

Conſtantinople, June 25. Our Advices from Perſia ſay, that 'tis believed all Kouli Kan's Forces will fall upon the Leſghis, a Nation whom he is determin'd to extirpate, in Revenge for the Death of his Brother; but 'tis ſaid Kouli Kan himſelf will ſtay at Tauris, and ſend his Son upon the Expedition. In ſhort, both the Porte and Perſia are making Military Preparations, but whether it is to go to War with one another, or to act in Concert againſt ſome other Power is not known.

Malta, July 2. The Gallies of the Order, which lately ſail'd from hence to block up Tunis, having met with eight Galliots and a few Pinks, at a ſmall Diſtance from that Port, they immediately attack'd them: The Turks made a long and vigorous Defence; but at laſt our Gallies took four Galliots and three Pinks from the Enemy, and ſunk the reſt. We loſt about 100 Men in this Action, among whom are ſeveral Knights; near 300 Turks have been taken Priſoners, and we releaſed about 200 Chriſtians that were in the Enemy's Ships.

Brunſwick, July 7. By a Courier extraordinary from Mittau we have receiv'd the agreeable News, that the States of Courland on the 27th of laſt Month had unanimouſly elected Duke Louis, Brother to the Duke Regent of Brunſwick, and to Duke Anthony-Ulric, to be their Duke and Sovereign.

Paris, July 21. The Marſhal de Beliſle has form'd 10 independant Companies of a hundred Men each, whoſe Buſineſs will be to forage, plunder, and raiſe Contributions. Their Regimentals are to be red, with Braſs Buttons, faced with black Velvet, and Gold Shoulder-Knotts.

July 26. We hear that the Regency of Tunis have Cru'd upon the Iſland of Tabarca, which was in the Poſſeſſion of M. Lomelini Auguſt 9. We have receiv'd poſitive Advice that the Breſt Squadron is ſailed, but on what Expedition, as yet remains a Secret.

The Preparations of War are continued here with more Vigour than ever, and ſcarce a Day paſſes, but ſome of the Field Equipages of the Officers are forwarded to Bavaria, or elſewhere.

Legburn, July 22. The Maſter of a Ship arrived here from the Coaſt of Languedoc, reports, that the Troops in Garriſon in that Province are filing off towards Lyons and Dauphine, and that the Militia is ſubſtituted in their Room.

Venice, July 29. We hear from Conſtantinople, that the Grand Signor having conſented to cede to Kouli Kan ſome of the Conqueſts made upon Perſia, the Reſtitution of which the latter demanded, the Accomodation between his Highneſs and the Schach was ſign'd immediately after, and it is even ſaid that a ſecret Treaty is concluded between them

Cologn, July 28. The Elector is augmenting his Troops with ſeveral Thouſand Men. A Party of thoſe of the Biſhop of Munſter is immediately to aſſemble towards Lingen and Cloppenbourg. They write from Bonn, that the Count de Sade, Miniſter of France, has finiſh'd the Negotiation he was charg'd with there to the Satisfaction of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

Vienna, Auguſt 2. The Court has receiv'd Advice that the Elector of Bavaria has taken Poſſeſſion of the Town and Caſtle of Paſſau, and garriſon'd the ſame with his Troops. This Proceeding of his Electoral Highneſs has occaſioned great Surprize and Diſquiet here, the City of Paſſau being look'd upon as the only Key of Upper Auſtria; the Conſequences of which are the more to be dreaded, it being aſſured that a conſiderable Body of Troops will march ſome Time of this Month to join thoſe of Bavaria. On this Occaſion a grand Council has been held at Presbourg; and we learn, that Orders have been ſent into Hungary to cauſe divers Regiments to ſet out from thence, beſides thoſe already on their March, to reinforce the Troops which are to aſſemble in Bohemia and in Auſtria. 'Tis thought that the Government of this City will be given to Count Konigſegg

The Queen has lately publiſh'd an Ordinance to raiſe 15,000 Recruits in her hereditary Eſtates in Germany. The Quota each Diſtrict is to furniſh is regulated; and it is thereby ſtipulated, that theſe Recruits ſhall be rais'd in ſix Weeks Time, on Pain of raiſing double the Number in caſe of Failure.

Mr. Robinſon is gone to Sileſia, and from thence to Hanover, in order to give his Majeſty an Account of the Succeſs of his Negociations for accommodating Matters between the King of Pruſſia, and the Queen of Hungary. Some ſay, that this Affair is as good as concluded, which they gather from the Motions of Count Neuperg's Army; which they ſay is to proceed from the Camp of Kalkau to Bohemia, and ſo abandon Sileſia.

Warſaw, July 25. The laſt Advices from Conſtantinople bring, that they entertain great Hopes there of a ſpeedy Accommodation between the Porte and Perſia; and that in the mean Time, Kouli Kan's Ambaſſador is treated with all imaginable Marks of Diſtinction: Theſe Advices alſo mention, that the Army of that Prince has enter'd Daghеſtan.

Ratiſbon, Auguſt 3. The Miniſter of the Margrave of Baden Dourlach notified laſt Monday, that the French Troops were to paſs this Month thro' the Circle of Swabia, for Bavaria; and that the Duke of Wirtemberg had granted them a free Paſſage thro' his Territories.

The Bavarian Troops have taken Poſſeſſion of the Town and Caſtle of Paſſau in the following Manner, viz. 'On 'the 30th of July at Night, a Meſſenger arrived at Paſſau 'to hire 16 Horſes at the Poſt Houſe for a Nobleman who 'was on the Road, and at the ſame Time demanded 'the Gate of the City to be open'd. Next Morning at 'Day break, came a conſiderable Detachment of Bavarian 'Horſe, followed by Two Battalions, which immediately 'ſeized the Gate, and the Commandant ſoon after ſent to 'the Biſhop to deliver up the Citadel; when Conditions 'were immediately agreed to on both Sides for its Surrender, and about Eleven in the Forenoon the Garriſon 'march'd out of the Citadel, Drums beating, &c. and the 'Bavarian Troops took Poſſeſſion of it.

N. B. This is the chief City of Upper Auſtria, and the Emperor Leopold in the laſt War ſpar'd no Pains to preſerve it. The Town is not fortified, but the Citadel is furniſhed with very good Ditches, Ramparts, and Outworks

Bruſſels, Auguſt 3. The Government pay great Regard to the Security of Luxembourg. 'Tis ſaid that the three Battalions of the Regiment of los Rios, one of which is here, another at Tormond, and the third at the Caſtle of Anvers, will be ſent thither to reinforce the Garriſon.

They write from the Frontiers of France, that ſeveral Regiments had begun to quit their Quarters to go to the Meuſe.
